

I Think droping the code requirement would give a good in flux of new hf operators, and agree with a fellow ham I heard on the air , that for extra privaleges, code should be required.